The final meeting. To-day his Frank Gill, beaten twenty lengths in his last start. the Commonwealth Handicap at Sheepshead Bay, comes out and runs the field in the Trident dizzy. He just walked home, as the telent put it, with a real good horse that Hessian has shown himself to be, staggering in two lengths after him, with Gold Lady two lengths back. To say that Frank Gill's victory was a surprise is expressing it gently. Nothing he has shown this season would give him a chance and as he walked around the paddock with boxing gloves on his hocks, his looks were enough to deceive an expert judge of horses.
